We were excited to see our spaces transformed! After 20 years, the Library was in need of a fresh coat of paint and new carpet. We were able to get new carpet and flooring on most of the first level. We plan on replacing the carpet on the second floor, in the meeting rooms, and in Youth Services in 2022.

Library Partnerships

Alone we can do so little;
together we can do so much.

~Helen Keller

These are just a few of the community organizations that Broome County Public Library partners with to provide services to the residents of Binghamton and the surrounding area. We are fortunate to be able to work with so many local organizations!

How You Can Support Broome County Public Library

The Library needs your support, because you, our friends and patrons are the Library's best advocates.

Speak up: You know you love the Library and everything it offers, but there are people in the community that are not aware of those activities and resources. Help them see what the Library can do for them; be a champion for the Library.

We Need You to Advocate for Us: The Broome County Public Library is funded primarily through your tax dollars, and your advocacy for our continued funding is greatly appreciated. Please let your public officials know how important their continued support of the Broome County Public Library is to you.

Join the Friends of the Library or Contribute Financially: If you wish to support the Broome County Public Library through a donation to the Friends of BCPL, please contact Joanne Hanrahan at: 607-778-6403 or FriendsBCPLibrary@gmail.com

If you are interested in joining The Friends of Broome County Public Library, membership information is available at bclibrary.info/membership or stop by and visit the Friends of the Library Bookshop, located in the Rotunda of the Library.
